DEPARTMENT OF DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES

(DDS)

The Department of Developmental Services (DDS) is the state agency that manages and oversees this service system. The types of specialized services and supports include autism spectrum supports, day supports, employment supports, residential supports, family supports, respite and transportation. DDS provides these services through facilities and community-based state operated programs and by contracting with private provider agencies. Multicultural Community Services is one such provider agency and designated Family Support Center.
